

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY
SECTION OF CHILD AND ADOLESCENT PSYCHIATRY

ACADEMIC PROGRAMME – TRINITY TERM 2012

Tuesdays 2.00 – 3.00pm
Magdalene Room, Boundary Brook House, Churchill Drive, Oxford OX3 7LQ

24 April	Parenting interventions for conduct problems: for whom and in what contexts? Recent advances and puzzles	Professor Frances Gardner Professor of Child and Family Psychology Department of Social Policy & Intervention Oxford University
1 May	Adolescent-onset schizophrenia and cannabis use – any connection?	Dr. Tony James Consultant Child & Adolescent Psychiatrist Oxford
8 May	Ethical and legal dilemmas in child and adolescent psychiatry	Dr. Charles Foster Barrister, Outer Temple Chambers, London Fellow of Green Templeton College, Oxford
15 May	Minding the baby: Mind-mindedness as a predictor of child outcome	Dr. Elizabeth Meins Reader in Psychology University of Durham
22 May	Criminal Justice and Adolescent Mental Health	Dr. Seena Fazel Consultant Forensic Psychiatrist Oxford University
29 May	The neuroscience of olfaction: Implications for development	Tim van Hartevelt & Dr. Morten Kringelbach Neurosciences Oxford University
5 June No seminars	HALF TERM
12 June	Non-suicidal self-injurious behaviour and psychosocial correlates among adolescents in Europe: Results from the European Research Consortium SEYLE	Professor Dr. Romaud Brunner Clinic Co-Director, Clinic for Child & Adolescent Psychiatry Centre for Psychosocial Medicine Heidelberg University Germany

* The seminars are open to everyone, but case presentations are only open to those with clinical responsibility within the Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust.

Registration or booking is not required.

If you would like this list emailed to you or have any amendments to your address, please contact Shirley Rees-Jones Tel: 01865 223935, e-mail: shirley.rees-jones@psych.ox.ac.uk